Audit Notes & Disclaimers

This automated document audit is based on parsing Microsoft WordprocessingML (XML) structures and interpreting user-defined styles (Heading 1-9) and numbering instances. While highly reliable for detecting structural and hierarchy mismatches, this audit does not assess the semantic content or accuracy of the text within those sections. Deviations may result from improper use of styles in the source document or custom manual numbering overrides that bypass standard Word definitions. This report is part of the model governance process and should be reviewed alongside human validation.
